NEW BUFFALO NICKEL MAKES ITS APPEARANCE

The beer-guzzlers' union is much disappointed over the appearance of the new five-cent piece, one of which was received in Reno today, says the Gazette. Gathered at various points of vantage on Commercial Row, members of the union discussed the advisability of ignoring the new variety of beer check and sticking to the old coin—that has become loved by long association.

"Dis new-fangled flit looks like a button off a Pullman porter's coat," said Bleary Mike, disgust apparent in every feature.

"Right you are," chimed in Cocaine Charley. "De guy dat dreamed dat nickel musta et too much for a night cap. It's worse'n horrible."

One interlop member of the crowd suggested that a delegation be sent to Washington to protest against the substitution of the new and strange make-shift for a piece of good money. Cooler heads prevailed, however, and it was agreed that such an expedition probably would fail because the new president would be too busy with other matters of state to listen to a protest.

The first one of the new coins to arrive in Reno was sent to a local newspaper man by a friend in the Denver mint. The coin is so burnished that it appears to be made of aluminum. Or one side—which corresponds to the old "head"—is the bas relief replica of the head of an Indian chief. On the reverse or "tail" side is the buffalo made famous by the Pan-American exposition. The words "United States of America" and "e pluribus unum" are at the top of the reverse side and "five cents" is at the bottom. "Liberty" and the date appear on the other.

STRAY SNOW STORM WANDERS TO TONOPAH

A wandering snowstorm that had evidently wandered far from its beaten path, struck Tonopah shortly before the noon hour and despite the many arguments offered, it is still with us. The fall has not been heavy but it is sufficient to cover the ground and cause a coldness that makes the coal man smile. With coal at $15 per ton it can easily be surmised that cold weather would be better appreciated in some clime beside Tonopah.

GIRLS TELL OF PLOT TO ROB CLUBMAN; PAL NABBED

LOS ANGELES, March 11.—Another alleged bunco plot was discovered last night when Curt Kimball was arrested by city detectives as the instigator of a scheme to swindle a wealthy clubman, whose identity was withheld by the police, out of a large sum of money.

Kimball was taken into custody, when two young women whose names were also withheld, reported that Kimball had engaged them to participate in the plot.

MANY TONOPAH PEOPLE HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND DO NOT KNOW IT

Do you have backache? Are you tired and worn out? Feel dizzy, nervous and depressed? Are the kidney secretions irregular?

Highly colored; contain sediment? Likely your kidneys are at fault. Weak kidneys give warnings of distress.

Heed the warning; don't delay—Use a tested kidney remedy. Mrs. M. Crow, 441 Fourth ave., Carson City, Nev., says: "Some time ago I used Doan's Kidney Pills for lame back and kidney trouble and they entirely relieved me. The statement I gave in 1907 recommending Doan's Kidney Pills still holds good. Ever since then when I have had attacks of kidney trouble, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and always with good results."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
